

Beaverton City Library presents:

Speed Coaching Small Business Taxes

Your Own Business 2019 Series

Enrolled Agent, Kathy Boutilier will present key impacts of the new tax law with a special emphasis on small business. The 20 minute presentation will be followed by a Q & A period. We'll also make a two-page "New Tax Law" from the Tax Research Institute available for attendees.

Wednesday, March 13, 2019

6-7:30 p.m.

Beaverton City Library Meeting Room B

Kathy Boutilier is an Enrolled Agent (designated by the IRS) with over 14 years of tax advisory experience and over 820 hours of advance tax education. She serves small businesses and individuals in Beaverton and is conversationally fluent in Spanish.

The Business Model Canvas For Planning Your Small Business

Do you like a visual layout instead of complicated business plans? Enjoy mapping out the feasibility of your new business with the Business Model Canvas. Learn more about what to consider before taking the leap, as well as some tips for getting started writing your business plan with Ken Norland, the principal of Tech Strategies, and a SCORE volunteer.

Wednesday, January 30, 2019

6-7:30 p.m.

Beaverton City Library Cathy Stanton Conference Room

How to Build Your Network and Prospecting Toolkit

Learn networking habits and practices that will increase your clout and market from Michelle Mason, owner and creator of the Beaverton Craft Beer Festival.

Wednesday, February 27, 2019

6-7:30 p.m.

Beaverton City Library Meeting Room A

Start Up 411

Got an idea for a startup, but don't know where to start? This workshop, delivered by Steve Morris, Executive Director of the Oregon Technology Business Center (OTBC), will provide an overview of local resources for entrepreneurs, a review of common mistakes entrepreneurs make, and a checklist of steps to take as you build out your plan. An overview of startup funding options including for tech startups, will be provided..

Monday, March 4, 2019

2-4 p.m.

Beaverton City Library Meeting Room B